I'm keenly aware of the fact that many of our citizens wear blinders when it comes to analyzing both the political positions of the liberals and the violent nature of some religionists.

I don't want to misrepresent anyone, consequently, I've purchased a copy of the Koran – the Muslim Bible, and the following quotes are from it:

"Believers, make war on the infidels, who dwell around you. Deal firmly with them, know that God is with the righteous" (9:123-Repentance).

"Mohammed is God's apostle. Those who follow him are ruthless to the unbelievers but merciful to one another" (48:29-The Sand Dunes).

"Believers, do not befriend your fathers or your brothers if they choose unbelief in preference to faith. Wrongdoers are those that befriend them" (9:3 Repentance).

According to the Koran, faithful Muslims can look forward to two gardens (55:50-The Merciful). "Each is watered by a flowing spring" (55:51-The Merciful). Also, "Therein are bashful virgins whom neither man nor jinnee will have touched" (55:54-The Merciful). Then in 55:59-The Merciful, the Koran says, "Dark-eyed virgins, sheltered in their tent…"

Mohammed claimed to have had visions, and that most of his visions are included in the Koran. But I would imagine that his visions were as ludicrous as the one he had of his adopted son's wife. He wanted her for his own, so he claimed he had a vision telling him that his son should divorce his wife. He did. He probably had no choice. He then promptly married her. Mohammed had four wives.

Let me also add that the Muslim's do not believe that Jesus is the Son of God. Funny, not ha, ha, they insist upon the right to practice their religion, even if it interferes with the classroom or the workplace, but they exert political effort against those of us who insist on praying in the name of Jesus.

Dear Reader, why don't you purchase a copy of the Koran? It will shed some light upon the liberal networks that attempts to picture all Muslims as peace-loving people. Make no mistake, many of them are radical and would not thank twice, if they had the opportunity, to kill the unbelievers. That's us-people who have embraced Christianity.

Thursday Night's Debate

Women are not only as smart as me, but some are even smarter. Palin blew Biden away Thursday evening in their debate. Biden made ten incorrect mistakes, according to the news media. He had been in Washington for thirty years, but is still confused about the articles to the Constitution.
