Little by little, the enemies of Democracy and Christianity are whittling away at America's heritage. The ACLU, the Liberal politicians, and radical Muslims have embarked on a mission to eliminate the influence of Democracy and Christianity in America's culture.

Effort is being made to curtail the vocabulary of God-fearing men and women. These diabolical enemies of this great nation are striving to remove the words 'God' and 'Religion' from our everyday usage. What is the most shocking of all are the school systems, which are allowing themselves to be used by these change agents.

To top it all, effort is being made to limit who visits a school cafeteria. If one is a minister, he is off limits, unless he is visiting his own children.

Since the Muslims do not believe that Jesus is the Son of God, they are behind much of the effort in removing Christmas from our heritage. So they sue some places and the first-cousin to the atheists, the ACLU, comes to their rescue.

Well, all of you enemies of America's heritage, let me share something with you – Christmas is here to stay. As long as there are little boys and girls there will be Christmas trees with beautiful packages under them.

Allah himself cannot make the vast majority of Americans believe that Jesus isn't the Son of God. When the last Baptist, Presbyterian, Church of God, Church of Christ, and other religious groups have had a sword run through their bodies by radical Muslims, there will still be those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

Do something for yourself and for America – buy yourself a t-shirt and have the words 'God Bless America' put on the front of it. They hate all three of those words. But, God Bless America! – so, how do you anti-Americans like that?
