

$75,000 Winner in RBS!

Tuesday, May 22, 2012

One lucky Macon County man is still in shock after he played Lady Jumbo Bucks and won $75,000 in the Tennessee lottery. The ticket was purchased at Red Boiling Springs Market, formerly Quik N Easy, which is located at 101 Lafayette Road, in Red Boiling Springs.

The convenience store is owned by Mike Patel. Lotto players don't give up, because you never know when the big one will come, and it will always be a surprise. Employee Linda King and Mr. Patel are pictured holding the winning ticket!
