

Driver Involved in Saturday Night Wreck Airlifted to Vanderbilt Medical Center

Written by Debbie Gregory
Tuesday, August 7, 2012

---

J.L. Hix was air lifted to Vanderbilt Medical Center, in Nashville, late Saturday night, August 4th following a motor vehicle accident on the Green Grove Road. Trooper Terry Seay, of the Tennessee Highway Patrol investigated the 10:15 p.m. wreck and Air Evac landed at Frito Lay, where Hix was loaded into the waiting helicopter from a Macon County EMS unit. According to Vanderbilt personnel he was treated and released from their facility. The Macon County Sheriffs Department, Macon County Ambulance Service, THP, and the Macon County Chronicle reported to the scene.