

Macon County Arts Council Annual Auction

Written by Debbie Gregory
Tuesday, August 28, 2012

The Macon County Auction for the Arts was held on Saturday, August 25th, at the Sally Wells Building, located on the Macon County Fairgrounds.

A delicious dinner was served by Linda's Catering and Kinship provided the musical entertainment. According to Nancy Doss $10,140 was taken in and after expenses the council expects to profit over $8,000. Doss said that her and Lucky Collins have decided to be co-presidents of the Macon County Arts Council for the coming year.