

7th Annual Ferrell Meador Apple Festival this Saturday

Written by Jessie Williams

Tuesday, September 11, 2012

Knollwood Manor and The White House Assisted Living invite everyone to come out and celebrate the fall season by attending the 7th Annual Ferrell Meador Apple Festival this Saturday, September 15, on the grounds of The White House Assisted Living facility in Lafayette.

Beginning at 10 a.m., festival guests will enjoy cider making, apple sampling, music provided by The Bluegrass Vibrations, antique and novelty booths, horseshoe pitching and craft demonstrations.

Entries for the Apple Recipe Contest must be submitted by 10 a.m. with categories to include Best Apple Pie, Best Fried Apple Pie, Best Apple Cake and Favorite Apple Recipe.

The Heritage Costume Contest will follow at 11 a.m., with participants asked to dressed in the clothes of yesteryear, or pre-1950.

Those attending the festival are encouraged to bring their lawn chairs and a healthy appetite for the Old Time Dinner at noon.

Dinner will consist of pinto beans with ham shanks, coleslaw, cornbread, fried apples and your favorite apple desserts.

All events at the 7th Annual Ferrell Meador Apple Festival are free of charge, including the Old

7th Annual Ferrell Meador Apple Festival this Saturday

Written by Jessie Williams

Tuesday, September 11, 2012

Time Dinner.

“We’ll have more booths this year than ever before, a new band and all kinds of crafts,” said Knollwood and White House co-administrator Beverly Walker. “Booth spaces are free and are still available.”

“We invite everyone to come out and have a great time at this year’s Ferrell Meador Apple Festival,” added Knollwood and White House co-administrator Linda Austin.

For more information, or if you would like to demonstrate a craft, set up a booth or sell a craft, contact Beverly Walker by calling (615) 666-5566, (615) 888-6588 or (615) 666-6363 after 6 p.m.