

The Macon County Chronicle sponsored the 5th Annual Luncheon honoring the Class of 2013 Valedictorians and Salutatorians from Macon County and Red Boiling Springs High Schools on Tuesday, April 16.

Honored this year were Macon County High School Valedictorian Taylor 'McKenzie' Sullivan and Salutatorian Rebecca Ballou and Red Boiling Springs Valedictorian Kirsten York and Salutatorian Taylor Coffelt.

Attending the luncheon at the Thomas House Hotel in Red Boiling Springs were Macon County Mayor Shelvy Linville, Macon County Director of Schools Margaret Oldham, Macon County CTE Director Jimmy Wheeley, School Board member Jimmy Cook, MCHS principal Stephanie Meador and guidance counselor Malinda Owens, RBS principal Don Jones and guidance counselor Stephanie Loftis, Macon County Chronicle employees and representatives from Citizens Bank, Macon Bank & Trust, Coley Real Estate & Auction, and the District Attorney's Office.

Congratulations to these outstanding students!