

The Central Region 4-H Achievement Day Contest was held on May 14th in Cookeville.

This annual event is held to demonstrate achievement of 4-H members and provide recognition of their accomplishments in competitive as well as non-competitive events. Macon County brought home 8 - 1st place awards; 3 – 2nd place awards; 2 – 3rd place awards; 3 – participation awards.

Those members receiving awards were:

Samantha Bussell: Entomology exhibit – 1st place & Entomology portfolio – 2nd place

Allyson Shoulders: Clothing & Textiles exhibit – 1st place

Taylor Cox: Horticulture/Garden exhibit – 2nd place & Sheep portfolio – 3rd place

Kade Allen: Leadership exhibit – 1st place

Zachary Goad: Horticulture/Garden portfolio – 1st place

Mia Brawner: Entomology demonstration – 1st place

Kaylee Case: Nutrition/Health exhibit – 2nd place; Nutrition/Health portfolio - participation

Kaylee Collins: Horticulture/Garden demonstration – participation

Not Pictured:

Haley Daugherty: Companion Animal demonstration – participation

Brooklyn Driver: Clothing & Textiles portfolio – 1st place & Citizenship portfolio – 3rd place

Luci Allen: Sheep portfolio – 1st place

Hailey Brewer: Forestry, Wildlife & Fisheries portfolio – 1st place