

Jessa Spears Wins Pageant Title at the Tennessee State Fair

Written by Debbie Gregory
Tuesday, September 24, 2013

Five-year-old Jessa Spears, of Lafayette, was crowned Tennessee State Fair Little Miss Queen on Saturday, September 14, during the state fair in Nashville, Tennessee.

Jessa competed at the Macon County Fair Pageant in the 4 to 6 year old group during August, which is the Little Miss division. She won the title over 21 other contestants, which allowed her to participate in the state pageant.

Jessa is the daughter of Junior & Heather Spears, and was born on June 9, 2008. She is in Kindergarten at Fairlane Elementary School. She loves animals and she also loves to sing.

“We’re certainly proud of Jessa,” said Heather, “and we want to thank everyone for their support.”