Mrs. Annie Jo Graves Caldwell of Westmoreland, Tenn. passed away Sunday, April 20, 2008 at the age of 64.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, April 22 at 3 p.m. from the Union Chapel General Baptist Church with Bro. James Sadler and Bro. Chuck Caldwell officiating. Interment followed in the Rippy Cemetery.

Mrs. Caldwell was a member of Union Chapel General Baptist Church. She was a devoted housewife.

She was the daughter of the late Wakefield Key and the late Nellie Katherine Perry. Besides her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Franklin D. Graves and her first husband William R. Caldwell; children, Patricia Graves and Franklin D. Graves, Jr. and brothers, Rufus Key, Lonnie Key and Bobby Joe Key.

She is survived by daughters, Jewell (Martin) Graves of Westmoreland, Diane (Mark) Keen of Portland and Shelia (Chuck) Caldwell; sisters, Jewell (Martin) Graves of Westmoreland, Alice Key of Portland, Ruth Hodges of Portland, Katherine Key of Portland, Nancy (Tommy) Morgan of Portland and Carolyn (Thomas) Harris of Westmoreland; 2 grandchildren, 3 step-grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.