

Tony Clower, 47

Thursday, June 5, 2008

Tony Clower, 47 years old of 2481 Carter Branch Road, Macon County, Tenn. went to Heaven on Tuesday, May 27, 2008 at 5:39 a.m. due to complications of heart failure at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Tony lived his life in the Nashville and Macon County areas, and spent the last ten years of his life enjoying the country life in Lafayette. He graduated from Nashville Auto Diesel College in the early 1980's and was an accomplished mechanic. He was married to Kathi Byrum on November 26, 1993 and they would have celebrated 15 years of love together with 3 children later this year. Tony loved family, friends and life. He appreciated all the relationships he made with friends in Macon County. He was always ready to give of himself to those in need. He was survived by his wife Kathi Clower and his 3 children, James Clower (17), Mike Clower (13) and Brandi Clower (9) and was loved by his two dogs Capo and Coco. Prior to his death, their home in Lafayette had burned and the family was relocated to 150 West Thompson Lane, Number P203, Murfreesboro, TN 37129. Donations for the children are being accepted at Macon Bank and Trust at (615) 666-4363. Per his wishes, he will be cremated and his ashes will be spread by his family in an upcoming cruise to the Bahamas.
