

Tracy Lynn Coley was born in Davidson County, TN on December 30, 1969 to Ralph Martin Coley and Martha Jean Bowman Coley. Her mother, Martha, preceded her in death on March 27, 2005. Tracy was one of two siblings born to this union. Tracy loved life to the fullest. The sweet smile on her face would capture your heart. She was with Pacesetters for several years working with Lavon Driver at the Palace Care and Rehab. Tracy attended Lafayette Missionary Baptist Church with her mom, and loved going to Sunday school. She also enjoyed going to ballgames and watching her nephew, Jedediah and niece, Calamity Jane play ball. Tracy truly loved her time spent with them. Tracy has been in Cookeville working out of I.O.I. She volunteered three days a week at the Senior Citizens Center. Tracy loved going to scrapbooking classes every Wednesday and going to the Library to find recipes to add to her collection. She may have been small in size, but Tracy had a huge heart. Tracy loved being around people and all kinds of animals, especially cats. On Friday, March 1, 2013 the Lord called this special angel home. Tracy will be truly missed by her family and all those she touched in this world. Funeral services for Tracie Coley were conducted Monday morning at 11 am from the Chapel of Alexander Funeral Home with Elder Ricky Wilson officiating. Randy Freeman, Jim Fishburn, Steve Walker, Keith Garrett, Tim Eller, and Jimmy Craig served as Pallbearers. Interment followed in the Macon County Memorial Gardens. Tracy is survived by; Father, Ralph Coley of Hendersonville, TN, Brother, Marty Coley and wife Connie, Niece, Calamity Jane Coley, Nephew, Jedediah Coley all of Lafayette, TN.
