

Kimberly Denise Hackett, age 51 of Red Boiling Springs, TN passed away Saturday evening, April 6, 2013 at her residence. Funeral Services for Kimberly Denise Hackett were conducted Tuesday afternoon, April 9, 2013 at 1 p.m. from the chapel of the Anderson & Son Funeral Home in Red Boiling Springs, TN with Elder Terry Austin and Elder Billy Joe Shoulders officiating. Interment followed in the Whitley Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were her cousins. Active pallbearers were Donnie Crawford, Prentice Hudson, Buddy Thompson, Richard Seber, Garry Kirby and Tim Roark.

Kimberly was born Tuesday, May 30, 1961 in Smith County, Tennessee, the daughter of the late Harold Hackett and Avo Sadler Hackett Jones. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her aunt, Esto (Roy) Whitley and uncles, Cordell, Windell and Verdell Sadler. She was saved at her Mother's home on Monday, July 29, 1974 and joined Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church on the following Thursday where she remained a devoted member until her death. Kimberly was a former meter reader for the Tri-County Electric Membership Corporation in Lafayette, Tennessee for many years.

Survivors include: step-father, Floyd Jones, Chandler, N.C., uncle, Cortez (Pat) Sadler, aunts, Edo (Dennis) Kirby, Inez (Fay) Etheridge all of Red Boiling Springs, TN and Imo (Ray J.) Dixon of Kempville, TN and several cousins.