The Macon County High School Tigers traveled to Livingston Academy on Friday, October 22, and returned home with a huge 34-24 victory.

The Tigers drew first blood with a touchdown by Tyler Drown and a successful PAT by Carson Cook.

Leading off the second period, LA scored a 54-yard touchdown, followed by a run from Tiger Zack Shockley. LA was able to complete two more touchdowns before the halftime buzzer sounded, regaining the lead at 21-13.

Macon County scored early in the third quarter with a touchdown and two-point conversion by Zach Shockley. This run knotted the game for the next eight minutes, until Livingston Academy nailed a 36-yard field goal to have a 24-21 advantage.

The Tigers had a new mind-set, determining defeat would not come easy, and they picked up their game on both sides of the ball.

Opening the fourth quarter, Tiger Dallas Grace ran a quarterback keeper through the middle of the line of scrimmage for a touchdown and a 27-23 lead changeover.

The Blue & White defense was unmovable and eliminated any chance for LA to slip through.
