The Red Boiling Springs High School football team traveled to Trousdale County for their last game of the season on October 29, 2010.

The chilly game on the creek bank did not hinder fans from coming to show support for their favorite teams.

After four quarters of play, the Bulldogs were defeated by the Yellow Jackets by a final score of 47-7.

Although Trousdale County played as the undefeated powerhouse team they are known for, the Bulldogs were able to leave this final game of the season with one touchdown.

Late in the fourth quarter, Red Boiling Springs quarterback Cody Dickens threw a pass to freshman Dakota Dickens, who ran in the eight-yard touchdown. The extra-point kick was good, TCHS 47, RBS 7.

The Red Boiling Springs football squad ended the 2010 season with a 2-8 standing.
