

The senior members of the Macon County High School football program and their parents were honored on October 29, 2010 for their dedication to the team and success of this year's squad. Congratulations to the seniors and their parents.