The Red Boiling Springs High School Bulldogs might have three strikes on their record, however during each of the games they have lost, the Bulldogs were only outplayed during each of the overtime periods, which says a lot about the magnitude of this group of boys.

On December 14, 2010, RBS traveled to Aaron Academy.

In the boys game... the Bulldogs led the opening round 14-11, and by halftime, Aaron Academy had inched their way forward to trail 24-22.

By the time the third quarter buzzer had sounded, the Bulldogs had a one-point advantage 36-35 over their opponent. In the fourth quarter Aaron put in one point over the Bulldogs to tie the game and force an overtime period.

In the OT quarter, Aaron stepped up their defense and outscored RBS 10-3 for a 57-50 victory.

Wes Grace led the Bulldogs with 17 points, followed by Shelton Watson with 15 points, Allen Kirk and Isaiah Washington with eight points each, and Andrew Mullinix with two points.

In the girls game... The Lady Bulldogs opened the travelling challenge with a two-point advantage over Aaron Academy (18-16).
