

Four Losses Tough on Macon Soccer

Written by Mark Darnell
Tuesday, April 17, 2012

The Macon County High School Soccer team had a tough week mid way through the season. This past week they dropped a crucial district contest and three other matches.

On Tuesday April 10th the Tigers lost a hard fought district contest to White House-Heritage. On Thursday April 12th they faced Merrol Hyde Magnet School. In a very physical and up-and-down game, MCHS lost by a final score of 3-4. On Friday April 13th Macon traveled to Nashville and lost an up and down match to Hume-Fogg. Finally on Saturday April 14th they traveled to take on Stratford and just weren't up to the task, losing their fourth game of the week.

The Tigers finish the week with a record of 4 wins and 6 losses. Next they are scheduled to play at Smith County on April 17th and at White House on the 20th.