

Macon County Volleyball Opens District Play

Tuesday, September 3, 2013

The Macon County High School Girl's Volleyball team began district competition this week. They split two games.

On Tuesday August 8/27 the Tigers faced Upperman High School. They were defeated in four sets 12-25, 8-25, 25-22, and 24-26. Emily Oyster had three kills while Kristen Flippin had two aces and two assists. Kaylee Scruggs led the Tigerettes with six blocks.

On Thursday Aug 29 Macon defeated Smith County. MCHS won in four sets 23-25, 25-14, 25-12, and 25-17. Scruggs had six kills and three blocks while Oyster and Jordan Shockley had one dig apiece. Jordyn Patterson led Macon with ten assists.

The Tigerettes are scheduled to host Cannon Co on Tuesday 9/3 and Smith Co on Thursday 9/5.