The Red Boiling Springs Police Department investigated a horrific one car wreck on Saturday, September 21, that resulted in a 28-year-old Lafayette man being carried by Lifeflight to Vanderbilt Hospital where he remains in stable condition this week. Jonathan Kee, who was the driver and only occupant of the 2000 Chevrolet Malibu, will also face numerous charges, which were obtained by Officer Jimmy Morgan, when he is released from the Nashville hospital.

The accident happened at 7:40 p.m. at 421 Lafayette Road inside the Red Boiling Springs city limits.

RBS Police Chief Terry Tuck said that according to witnesses, Mr. Kee over took another vehicle traveling north on Hwy. 56 and met oncoming traffic. "He turned to get back in his lane and lost control of the car striking a tree at that location," said Chief Tuck. "He almost hit another tree before the car came to a stop."

Mr. Kee was extricated from the automobile, which was smoking when investigating officer Jimmy Morgan arrived at the wreck site. "When he approached the car, Morgan noticed the driver laying across the passengers seat unrestrained and unresponsive," added the Chief.

The Macon County ambulance service carried Mr. Kee to Lafayette, where he was transferred
